

OU Students Heed Park's Road Signs

Omaha University students have been obeying the "final word" of the Omaha Parks and Recreation Department.

No violations of the "No Parking on This Side" signs on the east side of the Elmwood Park roadway have been reported. OU drivers are confused about the "No Parking at Any Time" notices placed on the north end of the road. One student remarked, "I parked there to test the efficiency of the Police Department, and nothing happened." Cars have been parked there and received no tickets. Four cars were parked facing the wrong way Wednesday morning.

The Fieldhouse parking lot consumed the overflow from the park and overcrowded lots. More than fifty cars occupied the Fieldhouse lot when a count was taken at 11 a. m. Wednesday morning.

Students are still parking on the park grass southeast of the University buildings and determined drivers are still blocking the exit to the lower parking lot. "We hope that these situations will remedy themselves when the students realize that the Fieldhouse lot is still only three minutes away," said Dean Jay MacGregor. "It amazes me that students prefer the five minute walk from the park to the three minute stroll from the Fieldhouse."

Ma-ie Day Themes Due Today

Today is the deadline for organization Ma-ie Day skit and float plans. The plans and the chairman's name for each entry must be turned into the Dean of Students by 3 p. m.

The scripts for Ma-ie Day skits are due Apr. 10.

'Chaillot' Production Nears; Clark Names Committees

"The Madwoman of Chaillot," the University players spring production, has ended its third week of rehearsals. The play will be given Apr. 10 and 11, in the University auditorium.

"The Madwoman," by Joan Giroudoux, has been reviewed in the November, 1949, issue of Theatre Arts magazine. It states that in a scene representative of the entire play—one part pure fantasy, two parts pure reason—the Countess effectively diverts a dispirited young man from killing himself by sharing with him her sure-fire formula for dealing with vicious people. "All you have to do to break their power," she says, "is to cut across their path from the left."

The two-act play takes place in

Students Submit Over 100 Entries To Lit Magazine

This semester's call for manuscripts for the "Grain of Sand," student literary magazine, brought the largest response since the magazine began publication.

The high school creative writers submitted over 70 entries. The editorial board of the literary magazine will select one story and one poem. The winners will be given a $25 scholarship toward tuition at OU. Omaha schools entering the contest were Central, South, Benson, Brownell Hall and North High. Out of city schools entering were Westside, Valley and Millard.

Robert Harper, faculty adviser, said, "We hope the magazine will appear in May. It will be sent to the printers in April."

Woods' Aid Wins National Notice

John E. Woods designed this board (picture above) to aid seniors in looking for work after graduation. It contains 168 brochures with information regarding recruiters planning to visit campus, or interested in contacting seniors in specific fields.

Letter boxes are directly under board. They contain brochures and application forms for company representatives coming in near future.

The brochures, previously filed and forgotten, are now kept up to date.

"It seems like a wonderful idea, but if the students don't use it, it isn't worth an inflated nickel," said Woods. "But I figure it has already paid for itself because it has resulted directly in three of our seniors being offered $350 per month starting jobs that look too good to pass up. If we hadn't been looking for material to fill the case we wouldn't have known about the jobs."

The Placement Board will be pictured in the "Journal of College Placement" with a write-up of the board's effectiveness. Woods added, "It will be the first time the magazine has ever used a picture with an article."

Smith; lights, Ray Havendick; Nancy Land, and Honor Thorsen; properties, Jean Bedmar, Susan Biven, Monica Fokken, and Walt Newcomer; curtain, Marshall Squire; make up, Phil Abramson, Joan Willey, and Ann McConney.

Dr. Clark also announced that the players are renting their costumes from New York, which are duplicates of those used in the original Broadway production of "The Madwoman."

"The play is coming along wonderfully," commented Dr. Clark, "and everyone is thoroughly enjoying it."

Leonore Marx will play the title role of Countess Aurelia and Tom Burke will play the leading role of the Ragpicker.

Shack Closes Tuesday

High school students from Omaha and Council Bluffs will take the annual University of Omaha Regents Examinations Tuesday.

The Student Center will be closed from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Two Turtles Try To Take 'Trudge Trophy' Tuesday

Press Club members have acquired not one, but two turtles. "Turtle Trudge" chairman Joyce Erdkamp said Wednesday that a "Turtle Trudge Trial Trot" will be held Tuesday afternoon to decide which turtle will be entered in the national Turtle Trudge at Detroit next month.

Miss Erdkamp said that Club members voted to send only one entry to the Trudge at the University of Detroit. "We'll pick the fastest turtle next week, then we'll train him for the Trudge," she said.

In keeping with the journalism flavor, members voted to name the turtles Slugline and Shrdlu, two newspaper terms.

The trial trot will be in the Student Center at 2 p. m. All students are invited to cheer on their favorite turtle and have an all-school dance.

Both turtles are on display in the Bookstore window today.

OU Radio Class Records Mystery

"Apartment 301" is the second in a series of locally broadcast programs being produced by OU's advanced radio production class. The show, a satire on detective work, is scheduled to be recorded tomorrow by the radio department and broadcast sometime next week by a local station.

Student producer for the show is Bob Erickson. Members of the cast are Darrel Githens, Carolyn Chapman, Jack Frost, Georgianna Walton and Lew Radcliffe. Other staff members for the show are Jim Erixon, engineer, Bob Dain, music; Don Chase, sound; and Mary Lou Griffin, technical director.

Omaha U. Alumni Group Passes $1000 Mark in Fund Drive; $200 Outstanding

The Alumni Association has passed the $1,000 mark in the first annual Fund Drive. In addition to this there are about $200 in outstanding pledges.

The class of '50 led with 35 contributions. Twenty donations each from the classes of '49 and '52 were second. Third were the classes of '48 and '51 with 14 contributions.

Alumni Association secretary Tom Townsend was well satisfied with the results of the drive. An average of $5.50 per member has been contributed by the first of this week.

Fifteen states and one foreign country are represented in the contributions. An alumnus in Korea accounted for the foreign country. The 15 states are Nebraska, Iowa, Ohio, Oregon, Minnesota, New York, California, Virginia,

Students, Faculty Talk Assessment

By Joanne Larkin

Plans for the Student Union and Library buildings on the Omaha U. campus are progressing. Dr. Robert Harper, member of the Library Planning Board, is awaiting a revised set of plans from the architect. The new plans will include the changes suggested by the building committee at the Chicago meeting attended by the OU Library Committee members.

"We are looking forward to the new plans," said Harper.

The Student Union committee has not met for four weeks. Members are waiting for the first plans from architect John Latenser.

Convo Slates Easter Music

"Easter 1953," this year's Easter convocation, will be presented by the Madrigal Singers, the University Choir, a String Quintet and organ Wednesday morning. The program will be presented at 9:30 in the auditorium. Classes will be shortened.

Frederic Homan will play the organ prelude. Soloists will be Joanne Pierce, alto, Theodore Romberg, tenor, and Millicent Wheeler, soprano.

The program will be closed by the University Choir, singing Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

The choir will sing Wednesday for the mid-day Lenten Service at the Orpheum theater.

The group will sing "Beautiful Saviour," "Crucifixus," and a choral benediction.

Greeks Give Thanks

The "Greek Week Help Week" activity was pushed to the top of the success ladder by the aid of 16 Omaha firms who contributed paint, rollers, brushes, turpentine, truck and insurance, Hugo Kahn, Help Week chairman said.

The firms include Morris Paint, Cook Paint, Sears-Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Glidden Paint, Arrow Paint, Brandeis Store, Micklin Lumber and Coal. Others are Sherwin-Williams Paint, Dupont (owned by T. S. Halpan), Uptown Hardware, Tatelman Grocery, Nate Belzer Store, Miller Chemical Company, Capitol Garage and Kaiman Insurance. "We certainly appreciate their help," he added.

Ronald I. Peterson received his sergeant's stripes while Fred R. Healea, Joseph L. Slavik and Henry E. Hofferber attained corporal standing.

Panel of Americans Start Appearances

Omaha U's Panel of Americans is beginning a schedule of Spring appearances in the city. The members visited the National Council of Jewish Women Tuesday.

The group will speak at the First Central Congregational Church Apr. 12, at the Dunwoody Kiwanis Club, Apr. 13, and at the Secretaries Association Apr. 14.

The present panel is composed of four students, Tom Burke, Hugo Kahn, Millicent Wheeler, and Henry Giles, but because of the interest in the Panel's activities, four more members were added. They are Bob Hill, Becky Chantier, Loew Radcliff and Marcia Morris. The new members will begin serving on the Panel Apr. 12.

The Panel of Americans is a group composed of persons with different nationalities and religions. Their purpose is to aid in an understanding of racial and religious problems.

The advisory council and moderators for the panel are James D. Tyson, Dean Jay B. MacGregor, Max Burchard, Miss Margaret Killian, Miss Ellen Lord, Robert S. McGranahan, Phil Allen and Harry Rice, University professors.

Langevin Calls For Top Workers

Applications for staff positions on the 1954 Tomahawk are being accepted by Dan Langevin, '54 editor. Organization and department heads, copy writers, artists and photographers are needed.

The new staff has begun work on the '54 book. "We want to cover everything that didn't make this year's annual," said Langevin.

AF Gobbledeglub Brings Unuscabularic Definitions

Here is a continuation of the Air Force definitions from last week. The accuracy of the definitions to the true meanings of the phrases is purely coincidental.

TRANSMITTED TO YOU: You hold the bag a while, I'm tired of it.

IT IS REQUESTED: Take a look and write another indorsement.

IT IS RECOMMENDED: We don't think that it will work, but you stick your neck out.

IT IS ESTIMATED: My guess. You try yours.

HISTORIAL RECORD: A hysterical record of incomplete, obsolete and useless information.

FOR COMPLIANCE: Sure it's silly, but you gotta do it anyway.

FOR NECESSARY ACTION: We've stalled long enough. Now do something.

RETURNED WITHOUT ACTION: Try and put the blame on us. How can we tell when you can't?

FOR SIGNATURE: I thought it up; you take the rap for it.

FORWARDED AS A MATTER PERTAINING TO YOUR COMMAND: Put the monkey on your back.

APPROPRIATE ACTION: Do you know what to do with it? We don't.

GIVING HIM THE PICTURE: A long, confusing and inaccurate statement.

UNDER CONSIDERATION: Never heard of it.

UNDER ACTIVE CONSIDERATION: We'll have a shot at finding it in the files.

HAS RECEIVED CAREFUL CONSIDERATION: A period of inactivity covering a time lag.

HAVE YOU ANY REMARKS?: Give me some idea what it is all about.

THAT PROJECT IS IN THE AIR: Am completely ignorant of the subject.

YOU WILL REMEMBER: You have forgotten, or never knew. I don't know.

That's all. There are hundreds more, but just learn these and you've got it made with the Air Force.

Journalism Room Adds Typewriters

For journalism and other classes that refuse to do their written work the old-fashioned way, something new has been added in Room 215 that seems to be the greatest thing since chlorophyll.

The pencil has been all but discarded in favor of the mechanically inclined typewriter, and the rattle of hunt and peck systems from outside the door sounds like a press room on election day.

For the first time at OU, 14 typewriters have been acquired to lend a professional atmosphere to all journalism classes and also for use by a night typing class.

Mr. Clifford Ellis, acting head of the journalism department, had nine machines recovered and overhauled, and five more obtained from the bookstore.

Seating arrangement was no problem with the typewriters. Previously, the room seated 30 people, but it now seats 32 since the installation of built-in benches by the maintenance department.

Garlough Quotes Scientific Facts

A parallel between science and world affairs was offered this week by Dr. L. N. Garlough, professor of biology. When asked his opinion of the new atomic artillery shell to be tested by the Army, Dr. Garlough came up with some astounding comparisons.

He stated that there are approximately 750,000 named insects in the world. Of this total, about 100 are actually bad for the humans. Of the nearly 5,000 fungi and bacteria known, only two or three dozen are bad.

Of the 1,500 grasses, there are about six that are harmful. The remainder are good and contribute to our existence.

"But because of the bad, we must set up a system of defense," he added. "So in the world, when the few bad ban together to spread their evil, the good must be ready to combat them with everything available," he concluded.

All-Americans

An American history prof asked his class for a list of the 11 greatest Americans. While the students wrote, the teacher strolled around the room. He paused at one desk and asked the youth if he had finished his list.

"Not yet," said the student, "I can't decide on the fullback."

Hic, Hic!

Bristol University, England, has come up with the greatest.

A psychology professor at the school puts his students at ease by serving free cocktails before each lecture. The professor, who serves as bartender, says he's testing his students on the effect of small doses of alcohol.

Freshmen Go Loco . . .

Closing hours for women's houses at Kansas State College have been extended a half-hour to 10:30 p. m. on week nights. The ruling was made despite strong opposition from frosh coeds.

The freshmen fear a time extension might hurt scholarship, result in less sleep. Upperclassmen had no such doubts — they voted for extension.

IF YOU CAN WIN

THESE WINGS YOU CAN EARN OVER $5,000 A YEAR AFTER GRADUATION

Important facts about the opportunities for YOU as a Commissioned Officer—Pilot or Aircraft Observer—in the United States Air Force

Must I be a college graduate to take Aviation Cadet Training?

No. But you must have completed a minimum of 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours toward a degree. In addition, under the new Aviation Cadet training program, you must be between the ages of 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition—with high requirements for eyes, ears, heart and teeth.

How long before I get my commission?

60 calendar weeks. You will receive the finest aviation training in the world—training that not only equips you to fly modern military aircraft but prepares you for executive and administrative work as well. At the completion of your training, you will have acquired a commission as a 2nd Lieutenant and the coveted silver wings of the United States Air Force.

Where do I take my training?

Pre-flight training will be at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Primary, basic and advanced training will be taken at any one of the many Air Force bases located throughout the South and Southwest.

What happens if I flunk the training course?

Every effort is made to help students whose progress is unsatisfactory. You can expect extra instructions and whatever individual attention you may require. However, if you fail to complete the course as an Aviation Cadet, you will be required to serve a two-year enlistment to fulfill the minimum requirement under Selective Service laws. Veterans who have completed a tour of military service will be discharged upon request if they fail to complete the course.

What pay do I get as an Aviation Cadet? And after?

As an Aviation Cadet you draw $109.20 a month pay. In addition, you get summer and winter uniforms, flight clothes, equipment, food, housing, medical and dental care and insurance . . . all free. After you are commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant you will be earning $5,300.00 a year—with unlimited opportunities for advancement.

Are all Aviation Cadets trained to be Pilots?

No. You can choose between becoming a Pilot or an Aircraft Observer. Men who choose the latter will become commissioned officers in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation, or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

Do Aircraft Observers get flying training, too?

Yes. Aircraft Observer Cadets receive approximately 200 hours of "in the air" instructions. The primary phase of Aircraft Observer training is the same for all branches (navigation, bombardment, etc.). The basic and advanced phases of training vary, depending on the specific course you pursue.

What kind of airplanes will I fly?

You will fly jets. The Pilot Cadet takes his first instructions in a light, civilian-type plane of approximately 100 horsepower, then graduates to the 600 horsepower T-6 "Texan" before receiving transition training in jets. You then advance gradually until you are flying such famous first-line aircraft as F-86 Sabre, F-89 Scorpion, B-47 Stratojet, B-50 Superfortress. Observer Cadets take flight instructions in the C-47 Dakota, the T-29 Convair, and the TB-50 Superfortress before advancing to first-line aircraft such as the F-89 Scorpion, B-47 Stratojet.

Will my commission be in the Regular Air Force or Reserve?

Aviation Cadet graduates, both Pilots and Aircraft Observers, get Reserve commissions as 2nd Lieutenants and become eligible to apply for a regular Air Force Commission when they have completed 18 months of active duty.

How long must I remain in Service?

After graduation from the Aviation Cadet Program, you are tendered an indefinite appointment in the United States Air Force Reserve and are called to active duty with the United States Air Force for a period of three years.

What recreation and leisure time will I have as a Cadet?

Discipline will be rigid—especially for the first few weeks. However, it is not all work. You'll find swimming pools, handball courts, movies and other forms of recreation on the post.

Where will I be stationed when I get my commission?

You may be stationed anywhere in the world . . . Hawaii, Far East, Europe, Puerto Rico, elsewhere. During your tour of duty, you will be in close touch with the latest developments in new flying techniques. You will continue to build up your flying experience and later should have no difficulty securing a CAA commercial pilot or navigator rating.

Your future is assured if you can qualify! Here's what to do:

- 1 Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
- 2 If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination at government expense.
- 3 Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
- 4 If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

OU Host Tonight Go Indoor Meet

By Larry Means

The indoor triangular track meet tonight between Omaha University, Iowa State Teachers' College and South Dakota U. may prove to be one of the closest of the season.

The talent is so evenly divided between the three schools that competition will be keen in all events.

Iowa State Teachers has one of the most potent squads in years and is expected to give an excellent showing tonight in the Fieldhouse.

Able in High Jump

An example of their ability and depth can be shown in the high jump. All three places were topped by the Teachers in a recent meet with Dubuque University with a tie for first place at six feet three inches.

In other races, Robinson of Iowa has a creditable 306.3 time in the 100 yard dash. Ray Eiben is their principle man in the 440 yard dash and the 880 yard run. He has been clocked at 1:57 in the indoor half mile.

South Dakota has not sent a list of candidates, but Coach Gorr says they have plenty of power. Gorr added, "South Dakota lost some of their good men, but they also gained some excellent new material."

Meet Begins at 7:30

Joe Nalty, 60 yard sprinter for the Indians, is expected to be the big gun tonight. Nalty has shown vast improvement in the past week and will undoubtedly provide strength in the dashes and the sprint relay.

The close rivalry between Bernie Lainsen and Wayne Larsen may be overshadowed in their combined attempt to place in the 440. Their best competition will be Ray Eiben of the Teachers. His indoor time is :51.5.

Townsend Takes Singles Division

Jim Townsend is the champion in the singles division of the Intramural Badminton Tournament. He edged Burt McMillan, 15-5 and 17-15, in the finals last Monday. Townsend earned a spot in the finals with a 15-11, 15-12 win over Larry Johnson. McMillan downed Arch Templeton, 15-13, 12-15 and 15-13, in the closest match to gain the other finalist position.

Townsend and McMillan are teamed together in the doubles division. They won their opening match from Bob Offerjost and Don Hopkins, 15-1, 15-1.

Intramural Director announced that all second round matches in the table tennis tournament must be played by Thursday, Mar. 26. Otherwise, both contestants in each match will forfeit and be ousted from further competition. All pairings are posted on the Intramural Bulletin Board.

Pi Kappa Alpha Jolts, Lambda Chi

Pi Kappa Alpha jolted league leading Lambda Chi in intramural bowling Mar. 19 by sweeping all three games. They moved within two games of the number one spot. Jerry Welling was the big gun for the Pikes. He had high game with 209, and he also rolled the high series with a 530.

ROTC pulled out of a slump, and they managed to take two out of three from Theta Chi.

For the third straight week the Independent team has lost on forfeits. They dropped all three to Phi Epsilon Pi. At one time ISA was leading the league, and they had the top bowler in the league in Turner Tefft.

Tennis Aspirants Train for Midland

Tennis aspirants have been working out every day on the courts when weather permits. Coach Fred Pisasale is hoping for another victorious season.

The first tennis team match will be Apr. 10 with the Indians facing Midland. But Pisasale said that "the one we want to win is the match with Nebraska University Apr. 11."

The winners accumulated 52½ points; ROTC, which had only a four-man squad, was second with 33½ points, and Pi Kappa Alpha was third with 30.

Theta Chi, the only other entry in the meet, was fourth with four points. Versatile Don Maseman was their only competitor.

Lowell Huber led the Sig Ep comeback by winning the mile run and the 880-yard run. He accounted for 11¼ of his team's total.

Baseball Candidates Bid for Positions

Coach Virgil Yelkin still has nine baseballers working on fundamentals during the practice sessions in the Fieldhouse.

The Yelkin-men will get their first taste of scrimmage on the second day that they work outdoors, with every prospect getting a chance to show his ability before the squad is divided.

On Saturday, Apr. 4, the OU nine will play their first game of the '53 season against an Alumni team composed of former OU baseball lettermen.

With the loss of Jerry Welling, through ineligibility, the Indian mound staff is short of experienced hurlers. The loss leaves big Bob Offerjost and Bill Duffack as the only moundsmen with college experience under their belts.

However, lefty Bob Burns, second semester transfer from Nebraska U., and Jerry Lawson loom as the best prospects to fill the vacant spots on the OU mound staff.

A tough battle will rage for the keystone spot when two little men, "Bugs" Redden, who just returned from service, and Bob Mackie vie for the starting nod.

With the loss of John Potts by graduation, Coach Yelkin will be looking for someone to fill the vacated outfield berth. However, stiff competition will come from letterman Roger Orr and Don Claussen, if he doesn't see action on first base. Bob Schropp and Duffack, regulars on last year's diamond nine, will probably fill the other two outfield berths.

Sedlacek Paces ROTC Rifle Win

Omaha University's ROTC rifle team hit their peak against the highly touted Union Pacific team on the OU range Mar. 18. The Indian sharpshooters posted their best score of the season, winning by an 1,835-1,817 margin.

Again Frank Sedlacek led the squad, but he had assistance from Gil Davis. Sedlacek fired a 374 out of a possible 400. Davis followed with 373. Sedlacek is the leading scorer on the team. He has an average of 370 out of a possible 400 on all matches.

Bob Forrey, Darrel Cox, Rodney Conser and Fred McCormick were the other boys that fired in the close match.

The Omaha team now stands fourth in the Inter-City Rifle League. They have one more match in the league with Carson City. The team will then journey to Grand Island for the Nebraska State Rifle Tourney.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR PAUL felt down under when his girl said, "Your sloppy hair kangaroos our friendship. Never pouch your arms around me again until you high tail it to a toilet goods counter for some Wildroot Cream-Oil. Contains Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Grooms the hair. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Get it or you'll kangaroo the day!" Sheedy tried Wildroot Cream-Oil and now all the girls are hopped up about him. Better reach in your pocket for 29¢ and buy Wildroot Cream-Oil in either bottle or tube. You kangaroo cause it puts real punch into your social life. Ask for it on your hair at any barber shop too, and get a jump ahead of all the other guys!
